

Dr. Erdem İlker Mutlu joined İstanbul Bar Association in 1998 as a practicing lawyer. In 1999 he was appointed as a research assistant by Prof. Aslan Gündüz, who had served as Türkiye's Chief Legal Advisor to the Council of Europe and the Court of Human Rights and as an arbitrator for the ICC (International Chamber of Commerce) Dispute Resolution Authority. He completed his first master's degree in EU Law at Marmara University EU Institute in 2000. After having started his PhD, he had a JM Scholarship from the European Union-Turkish Ministry of Foreign Affairs, he pursued an LLM degree in International Law at King's College London between 2001-2003. In 2004, he did his PhD research at King's College London. In 2006, he completed his PhD at Marmara University EU Institute.

Between 2006 and 2011, he served as the Chairman of the Istanbul Bar Association Human Rights Center. Dr. Mutlu has been a lecturer in vocational training within the Union of Turkish Bar Associations (UTBA) and the Istanbul Bar Association for many years. He has extensive experience in many national and international litigation cases. He is a current member of the academic advisory board of the UTBA Human Rights Centre. In 2011, he joined Hacettepe University, Faculty of Law as a co-founder and started to serve as the Head of the Department of 'International Law'. Between 2014-2018, he acted as the Vice Dean of the Faculty of Law and a member of the Board of the Hacettepe University Arbitration Centre. He served as a visiting lecturer at Galatasaray University, Bahçeşehir University, and TOBB University. He is a regular lecturer at institutions affiliated with the Ministry of National Defense and the Ministry of Justice. He still works at Hacettepe University as an Associate Professor in International Law. Dr. Mutlu has been lecturing on many platforms and he was previously listed as an arbitrator at Hacettepe University Centre of Arbitration and the DAB list of Association of Turkish Consulting Engineers and Architects.